Support Worker RECRUITMENT

BOSP (Brighter Opportunities for Special People) is an Essex based charity that has been supporting families since 1991 by providing fun educational clubs with full care for their children and young people who have disabilities or life-limiting illnesses.

BOSP offers a wide variety of regular activities and family support. Offering both hall based activities and clubs that take place in the community, BOSP aims to reduce isolation and develop the children and young people's independence, self-esteem and social skills in a fully supported environment, whilst providing vital respite for the family.
